

KHALILA RIGA

PROFILE

Khalila Riga is a nationally recognized Subject Matter Expert in human trafficking (youth and familial), author, and anti-trafficking consultant who has dedicated her life to educating and empowering communities across the United States.

A survivor of human trafficking, Khalila uses her lived experience to illuminate the realities of exploitation while advocating for systemic change, trauma-informed care, and survivor inclusion at every level.

Since 2020, Khalila has served in direct care and leadership roles across the anti-trafficking field, including residential technician, case manager, and hotline facilitator with organizations such as Hope Center Indy and The Salvation Army's Greater Cincinnati Anti-Human Trafficking Division.

Khalila is the founder and CEO of Khalila Riga Consulting, providing impactful keynote presentations, survivor-informed training sessions, and strategic consulting to professionals and organizations nationwide. In 2023, she was also a contributing voice in the Federal Human Trafficking Report.

Her story is featured in the Modern-Day Slavery exhibit at the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center and has been shared on numerous podcasts, including Voices of Freedom, Fire Forged Leader, and The Adoption and Foster Care Journey. She is also a contributing author in The Story of Foster Care | Volume 2, a project by Empty Frames Initiative that explores the connection between foster care and human trafficking.

With deep conviction, Khalila believes survivor leadership, collaboration, and are key to ending human trafficking and restoring hope to those impacted by it.
